SPRING FOOD DRIVE - The Kawartha Lakes Food Source is looking for volunteers to help with the Spring Food Drive at Loblaws and Valu-Mart in April. If you can help, please call Dennis Eaton at 324-4210.

THEOLOGY AT THE MOVIES: "THE BLIND SIDE" - Welcoming someone new and different into our midst should be easy, but that doesn't mean it actually is. The Oscar-winning film, "The Blind Side," is both entertaining and an example of what Christian compassion and a desire for justice demands of us. We'll be showing and discussing the movie on April 29 in the parlour, starting at 7 p.m.--all are welcome. Presented by the Faith Development Committee.

GUESS WHO'S COMING TO DINNER? - If you'd like to get to know others in our congregation better, you're in luck-- Guess Who's Coming to Dinner? is back! Previous participants say they've enjoyed spending time with those they may not know as well, which strengthens our community. Best of all, it's just plain fun! You can speak to Nancy Payne or Marj McClelland for more information, and sign up in the gym after church today.

ATTENTION U.C.W. - The Bay of Quinte Conference UCW Annual Meeting will be hosted by Port Hope United Church on Wednesday, April 27th. The theme is "Circle of Life" and the speaker is Rev. Kristiane Charlton. Registration deadline is April 14th. See the UCW bulletin board for registration details.

Certain participants will be contacted and asked to donate some of the elements of the Seder meal.

REQUEST FOR PROPOSAL (RFP) - The Board of Trustees has issued a Request For Proposal (RFP) for the professional management of our investment portfolio. The major bank-affiliated investment firms have been invited to respond. For other interested parties, the RFP is available from the church office. THE FOOD SOURCE - We hope the grocery cart will overflow! Some of the items go to food banks, school breakfast programs, social service agencies and the Lindsay soup kitchen. For every $1.00 donated the Food Source is able to distribute $6.00 worth of food.

SHOPPING CARD PROGRAM - Help Others and Help Our Church! - Just one more positive aspect of the Church's Shopping Card program is the opportunity it offers to assist other local organizations. For example, if you are considering ways to assist an agency or group that could benefit from receiving a shopping card for a local grocery store, why not purchase a card from our program and donate it to the local charity? Our Church will benefit and so will the agency! Cards are on sale each Sunday in the gymnasium and in the Church office during the week. Proceeds support the Voices of Victory and the Church's general funds. For further information speak to Kyle Cotton or Mike Puffer.
